What is Neighborhood Health Plan of Rhode Island?

- Neighborhood is a health maintenance organization, also known as an HMO.
- We work with the State of Rhode Island and the RItE Care program to help people get high quality, low cost health care for their children and family.
- RItE Care and Neighborhood are available to children and families who qualify based on income.

Who is Eligible?

- Parents with children (up to age 18) with family income less than 185% FPL (federal poverty level) - applies to biological parents, adoptive parents and relative caregivers.
- Children (up to age 19) with family income less than 250% FPL.
- Pregnant women with family income less than 350% FPL.

Why Choose Neighborhood?

- Neighborhood has a very large network of doctors to choose from.
- Most doctor-prescribed medicine, including over-the-counter medicine, is free with your Neighborhood card.
- When you call Neighborhood, you talk with someone who is from the community, speaks your language and works with you to get the health care your family needs.
- According to the National Committee for Quality Assurance (NCQA), "Neighborhood was rated as one of the Top 10 Medicaid plans in the country for Effectiveness of Care. This means that Neighborhood's members are in good hands! Neighborhood is committed to providing the best care available."
